NEWS FROM IFCM MEMBERS

VALE: WESTON NOBLE

Legendary choral and instrumental conductor Weston Noble died on 21 December from complications of a fall; he was 94 years old. Noble had a 57-year tenure as a conductor and teacher at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa, USA. He received acclaim around the world as the conductor of the Luther College Nordic Choir 1948-2005 as well as the Luther College Concert Band 1948-1973. He was guest conductor for more than 900 all-state bands, orchestras, choirs and festivals most recently in Guam, South Korea and Malaysia. Weston Noble was a charter member of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA). In 1994 the North Central Division of ACDA established the Weston H. Noble Award for Lifetime Achievement and he was the first honoree. He was also the recipient of the Robert Shaw Award given by the ACDA and received five honorary degrees. He was awarded the St. Olav's Medal from King Harald V of Norway for his contributions to Norwegian-American relations.

A small man with a soft voice, he brought humanity into his music, challenging singers to look at the text and understand how the delivery of this creates the complete choral experience. Weston Noble rose from a common upbringing to a life of distinction, yet retaining the common touch of his origins.

VALE: MEMBERS OF THE ALEXANDROV ENSEMBLE, RUSSIA (also known as the Red Army Choir). A Russian plane headed to an air base in Syria with 92 people on board, including members of a well-known military choir, crashed into the Black Sea on Christmas Day minutes after taking off from the resort city of Sochi. No one survived the crash on the Ut-154, which belonged to the Defense Ministry and was taking 64 members of the Alexandrov Ensemble to a holiday concert at the Hemeimeem Air Base in Syria's coastal province of Latakia. The entire 64 souls of singers, musicians and dancers was lost.
