WORLD CHORAL DAY GALA IN LISBON ON NOVEMBER 30, 2018

On November 30, 2018, IFCM organized its first World Choral Day gala concert in Lisbon, Portugal, more precisely at the concert hall of Casino Estoril, thanks to the generosity of Mr. Choi Man Hin, CEO of the casino. Five local choirs joined together to celebrate the joy of singing: The Youth Choir of the University of Lisbon, conducted by Erica Mandillo; Jasmim Molihua, conducted by Carlos Silva; Ricercare, conducted by Pedro Teixeira; Musaico, conducted by Tiago Marques and Cantares de Evora, conducted by Fernando Costa. The IFCM Executive Committee, present at the concert, was honoured with the presence of the Ambassadors of the People's Republic of China, of Guatemala and of Israel in Portugal. Each choir receives an award for their participation in the World Choral Day 2018. Our deepest gratitude to everyone who made this possible! Did you know that 65% of choirs want to contribute to social integration?

But almost half of them do not fully reach this aim!***

To help the sector, 11 organisations joined forces over the last two years.

They developed four handbooks to help conductors, teachers and organisations use collective singing as a tool for the integration of young migrants:

- Singing with groups of young refugees
- Including young people with migrant background in existing choirs
- Working in a school environment
- Repertoire guide

In the handbooks, you will find practical tips, examples of good practices, ideas on how to overcome the most common challenges, stories and testimonials. Through the repertoire guide, you will access a curated list of relevant songs and musical games and many videos to help you set up activities.

Do YOU want to contribute to social integration? Download the free handbooks of the Sing Me In project! The handbooks are available in 11 languages: Arabic, Catalan, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Norwegian, Spanish, Turkish

FEDERACIÓ CATALANA D'ENTITATS CORALS (FCEC)

54 INTERNATIONAL CHORAL MUSIC FESTIVAL BARCELONA, 8 - 14 JULY 2019

Application deadline 15th January 2019

Every summer, Barcelona becomes a meeting point for choirs from all over the world, which come to enjoy the city and to share their music with others. The festival offers the chance to participate in workshops led by world-renowned conductors, as well as free time to tour the city, to visit some of the most iconic places in Barcelona, and the opportunity to sing in several venues in the city and its surrounding area, including the historic church Església del Pi, in the heart of Barcelona, and the modernist concert hall Palau de la Música, which is included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. This year's workshops will be Treasures of Renaissance Music, conducted by Andrea Angelini, and Music and Movement, conducted by Maud Hamon-Loisance. The main purpose of the festival is to allow singers to learn together and to share their culture and music. Participating choirs will spend their time with around 400 singers, both local and from all around the world, which will certainly be an unforgettable experience.

OBITUARY: EMMANUEL "MANU" POIRÉ (BELGIUM)

The Belgian choral network lost one of its most fervent supporters. Emmanuel "Manu" Poiré died on November 28, 2018, a few days before his 90th birthday. Emmanuel Poiré was the founder of A Coeur Joie Belgium and of several choirs in Namur, Belgium, among which the renowned Choeur de Chambre de Namur. He was the artistic director of the Europa Cantat Festivals in 1967 and 1982. Thanks to his international network, he brought to Namur several singing weeks and workshops which led to the creation of a Choral Centre supported by the City and the Province of Namur. The French Community designated Mr. Poiré to develop choral singing in Namur which became the capital of choral singing. "Manu" served choral music during all his life. Our deepest gratitude to him! RIP.
