

Dr. Maria Theresa Vizconde-Roldan is a distinguished choral pedagogue and children's choir conductor. She holds a Doctor of Musical Arts in Music Education with Summa Cum Laude, with a bachelor's degree (Cum Laude) and a master's in choral conducting. She teaches conducting and serves as the Music Education Department Coordinator at the University of Santo Tomas. Theresa is renowned for her innovative choral method, GESTAPHOR, and her international work as a guest conductor, clinician, and juror. Together with her husband Jude, she writes choral music and books, collects and arranges Filipino folk songs, all of which are published internationally. Her choral program has gained global recognition, winning top prizes in international competitions and invitations in prestigious festivals. Theresa is also a dedicated leader in the Philippine choral community, acting as Vice President for Projects of the Philippine Choral Directors Association and President of the Treble Choir Association of the Philippines.
