

Choral Exchange Performance

The organizing committee will arrange every choir with opportunity(ies) to exchange the joy of singing with choristers from all over the world, singing for the world peace and friendship, sharing the skills and experience of choral music.

Choral Club

For the purpose of celebrating, exchanging and learning, the organizing committee will establish a Choral Club for Chinese and international choirs who stay in the choral camp. Besides, choral lovers will also be able to enjoy delicious Chinese cuisine, shop for special designed souvenirs, improvise, exchange scores and CD with other choirs in the club. The Choral Club will become a Fiesta for choral lovers during the Festival.

Sightseeing

Being the capital city of China, Beijing is an international modern metropolis and one of the Four Great Ancient Capitals in China. With more than 3000-year history, Beijing owns abundant touristic resources that also has 6 world cultural heritages in the city. The organizing committee will arrange choirs (self paid only) to visit the Forbidden City (largest imperial palace in the world), Tian'anmen Square (largest city center square), Temple of Heaven and the Great Wall.
