NEWS FROM IFCM

IFCM's new and innovative website now accessible worldwide

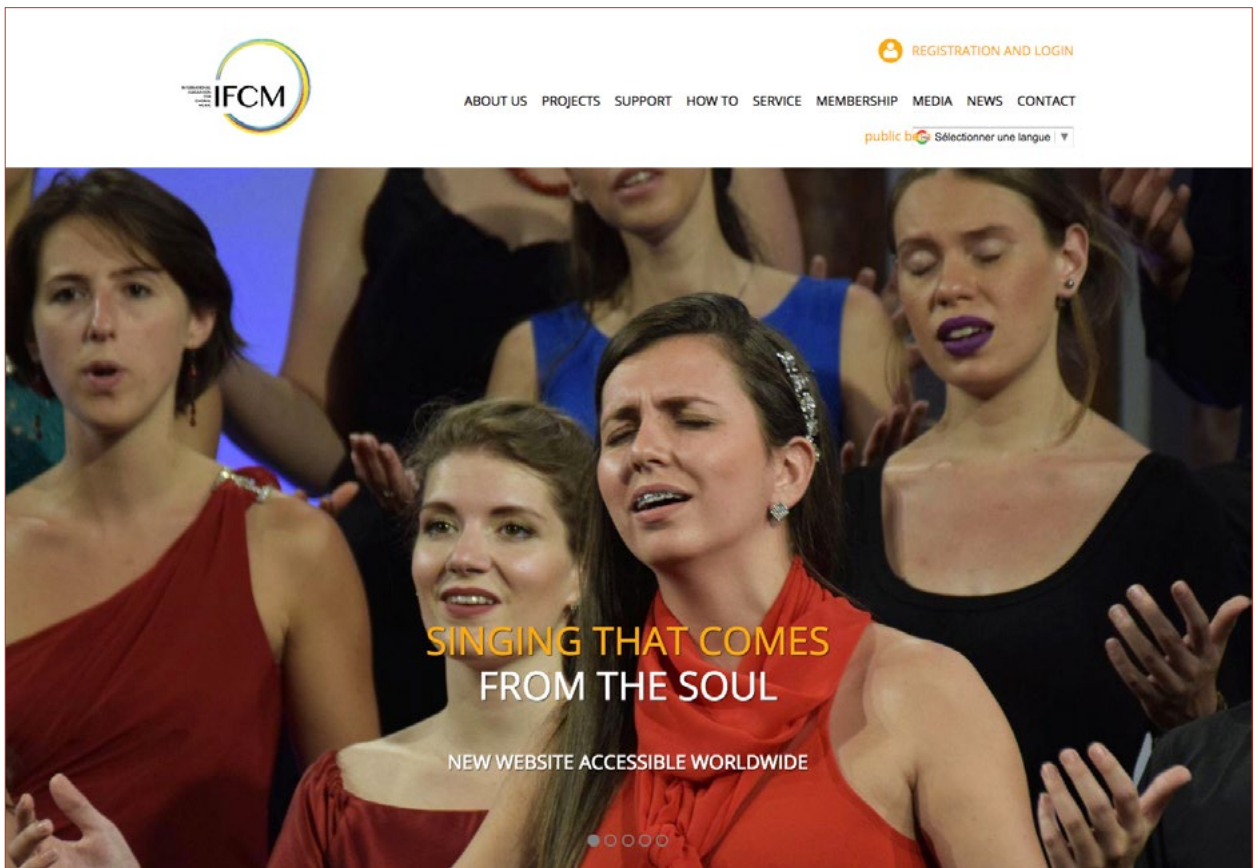

As part of its global communication strategy, the International Federation for Choral Music designed a brand new website that intends to meet all 21st century needs for an efficient online communication system that - with the support of its social media channels - can access the global choral community without limits.

The ifcm.net website has a new structural design and graphical image, and it has a responsive layout to meet all mobile devices' needs. We are providing an automatic Google-translation of all website contents to more than 100 languages, in order to promote enhanced global reach to choral communities where English is not widely spoken. All contents have the easy-to-handle, powerful support of our social media channels so that the global choral society can be easily accessed.

On the new website you can find updated information about our membership system, projects, and global network, and at the bottom of each subpage you can easily reach both the subdomain of the International Choral Bulletin magazine with hundreds of exciting articles at http://icb.ifcm.net/en_US/ and the global calendar of choral events.

Moreover, there is an ongoing way of getting informed monthly through our eNews with an easy subscription form: <https://ifcm.net/media/subscribe-to-ifcm-enevs> You can find tutorial videos on how to log in to the new site by requesting a new password or on registering as a new user: <https://ifcm.net/how-to/use-this-website-and-subscribe>

The ifcm.net website is running as a public beta version. All comments and suggestions are welcome at communication@ifcm.net or via the IFCM Facebook channel: <https://www.facebook.com/IFCMop/>

12TH WORLD SYMPOSIUM ON CHORAL MUSIC (WSCM2020)

Applications are now open for Choirs and Presenters at WSCM2020

11-18 July 2020, Auckland, New Zealand

In 2020, the Symposium sails to the Pacific paradise of New Zealand, and for a week in July the vibrant cosmopolitan city of Auckland becomes the choral capital of the world. Gateway to a stunningly beautiful country, with its almost infinite variety of dramatic landscapes and experiences, Auckland is also home to a multicultural blend of Māori, Europeans, Pacific Islanders, Asians and many others... and to the dynamic mix of music they enjoy and share. Over a thousand people at the last Symposium said they'd always wanted to come to New Zealand. WSCM2020 gives you the perfect excuse!

CHINA INTERNATIONAL CHORUS FESTIVAL AND IFCM WORLD CHORAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Beijing, China, 19 July to 25 July 2018

As you read in our last IFCMeNEWS, the four top choirs invited to the China International Chorus Festival in July are now selected. This month, let's discover Viva Voce from New Zealand!

Founded in 1985, Auckland chamber choir Viva Voce has established a reputation throughout New Zealand for its quality, versatility and attractive presentation of a wide variety of music. Known for its innovative themed programming, the choir seeks to bring an element of theatricality and even humour to its performances, striving always for the twin goals of excellence and entertainment. Its members are trained singers and several are soloists, conductors and music teachers in their own right.

Viva Voce has given over 500 concerts, performs at public, corporate and private engagements, and is broadcast frequently by Radio New Zealand. While the choir typically sings a cappella, it is often invited to take part in larger-scale works, either alone or in conjunction with the New Zealand Opera Chorus and Auckland Philharmonia Orchestra. Viva Voce has also mounted several successful orchestral concerts of its own, and its semi-staged productions of Carissimi's Jephte, Purcell's Dido and Aeneas and Handel's Messiah and Solomon have received considerable critical acclaim.

Viva Voce is honoured to have been invited to participate in the 14th China International Chorus Festival as ambassador for the 12th World Symposium of Choral Music, to be held in Auckland, New Zealand in July 2020.
